MANDOLIN BLUES

RICH DEL GROSSO-JONN DEL TORO RICHARDSON/Time Slips On By

Way different kind of set that's certain to grab you by the ear and not let go. Take some stripped down ZZ Top, add resonator mandolin, tear the roof off the sucker and forget about adding water or passing go and collecting $200. An amped up take on the lonesome, Texas acoustic blues sound that always hits some primal chord, this is for the roadhouse on the moon where the party never ends. First class chuggling boogie, like you haven't heard in some time, this is the blues/rock/roots stuff your pop is talking about when he tells you the stuff you listen to sucks. Check it out, it's a wild ride. Call shotgun now. Psst, don't look now but our old fave, Fiona Boyes is in the mix too. 10002 – Chris Spector
