Rich DelGrosso & Jonn Del Toro Richardson have released Time Slips On By (self-released), which is some mighty fine Texas blues and roots with solid vocals, solid lyrics and more than solid instrumentation. DelGrosso plays his electrified resonator mandolin that fits his blues perfectly. Richardson is a fiery guitar player with many awards that seems to never overplay or underplay. In other words these two do the blues as it should be done. This is not the Chicago or Delta kind of blues, rather it's the Texas Gulf Coast variety. Special guest are The Texas Horns, Nick Connolly, Sonny Boy Terry and Fiona Boyes. – Jerry Henry
